

The Place Where Money Grows San Diego--the Beautiful

There is where we invite your attention---where we most cordially invite our El Paso and Texas friends and neighbors to come and reside and to become a part of our beautiful city.

San Diego Wants High Grade Citizens

Like ALL progressive cities, we reach out into other sections and offer inducements to attract attention to the opportunities that lay at your door. : : : : : : : : :

El Paso and San Diego Are Indissolubly Linked

and with the completion of the San Diego and Arizona Railroad a few months hence, El Pasoans will have a direct route to San Diego, and to the already large colony of Texans now with us, we hope to add many more. San Diego offers much to investors and to those who like life near the ocean. Nowhere else in the world can be found a finer harbor, a better climate, nor a more ideal location for a city. And such views! From almost any part of San Diego one has a commanding view, unsurpassed in beauty, anywhere on the globe. Bathing in the sparkling, dancing blue waters of the Pacific is one of the pleasures that daily brings hundreds to San Diego. Every day in the year one can indulge if so desired, as the temperature of the water is at all times delightful, and the Pacific at this point is free from undertows. You all know about our climate, the Flowers and Lawns, the majestic Palms and Rose Hedges. The climbing and ever beautiful Bogenvelia is everywhere in evidence. Oranges and Lemons, Figs and fruits of all kinds grow prolifically in your own yard in San Diego. Life there is one constant day dream—it surely is the Hesperides of the West. And that you all may know more about what San Diego is like, WE HAVE OPENED LARGE OFFICES IN THE TRUST BUILDING, HERE IN EL PASO, and have maps, paintings, photographs and all sorts of interesting data that we ask you to come up and see at your leisure. LET US SHOW YOU REALITIES—let us tell you the facts. You want to know—IT'S FREE TO ALL. Our corps of men will take pains and pleasure in explaining about "San Diego the beautiful." Don't put off your visit too long. COME NOW if you can spare the time. DOLLARS GROW IN SAN DIEGO—we'll tell you how and why. We want you to listen. Watch for our advertisements—they will appear often—and once more do we invite you to

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO THE DEPARTED

Woodmen of the World Honor Their Dead With Exercises.

Tornillo Camp No. 42, Woodmen of the World, and Willow Grove No. 84, Woodmen Circle, joined in tribute to departed Woodmen Sunday afternoon at Evergreen cemetery when the annual memorial services of the order were held.

Albert S. J. Eylan, judge of the county court of El Paso, was the orator of the occasion and in a brief but sincere talk paid tribute to the order and the principles for which it stands. "To the men who see their duty and face it like men."

"The sympathetic hand is worth all of the sympathetic tears that were ever shed," said the speaker. "One good deed is worth all of the good intentions. These monuments about us, the tree stump, the axe and other emblems of our order have a deep meaning. It means that the man who lies under the stone did something—not only thought well, but did well, that here lies a man who saw his duty to his family and faced it squarely."

Dying a Duty.
The speaker alluded to the incident of old Jim Bloodgood, a pilot on the Mississippi river, who, when his boat caught afire, poked the nose of his boat in the river bank and stuck to his wheel while the men, women and children on board found safety on the bank, finally losing his own life. The speaker then compared the pious, seeming lives of some people and those of Woodmen of the World, who, like the old river pilot, seeing his duty "went for it then and there, without waiting."

Immortal Character.
"Tornillo camp, it seems to me, has something immortal in its character, each year coming out here to decorate the graves of their dead comrades, and it is a consoling thought that when our time comes to leave our loved ones, all our graves will be marked and strewn with flowers. But more than the monument itself is what the monument stands for, testifying silently but eloquently, here lies a man whose life was more than good intentions, who saw his duty and faced it. And when that is done, little more remains to be said."

Only One Death in Year.
But one member of Tornillo lodge died during the year. Edward F. McAuliffe died June 19, 1909, and was laid to rest in Evergreen on June 13, just a year lacking one week. His grave, together with the fifteen other graves in the cemetery, is today banked with delicately tinted sweet peas and sprigs of fern leaves, dropped from the hands of the living brethren as they filed past green mounds, where, enshrouded in the drapery of Nature, the dead Woodmen dream pleasant, eternal dreams.

A chorus rendered "Nearer My God to Thee" as the graves were being decorated and later "Lead Kindly Light." A large number of the local lodge and many of the Woodmen Circle were present and took part in the beautiful ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Norzell are occupying the W. L. Tooley residence on Sunset Heights for the summer.

PLAYLETS GIVEN BY SCHOOL PUPILS

Commencement of Catholic Schools Attended by Interesting Exercises.

The splendid work among the coming generation of Mexican-Americans being done by the Roman Catholic sisterhood of El Paso found expression Sunday afternoon when closing exercises of the Sacred Heart and St. Ignace schools were held in the Sacred Heart school hall on south Oregon street. Without a single hitch in line of step, little Mexican children rolled off the English and performed some pretty drilling on the little stage at the end of the hall.

Directly in front of the stage sat a number of visiting priests and the sister teachers. As contrast against the black of their habits was the cardinal robe of Rt. Rev. P. Gavilan, bishop of Chihuahua, guest of honor of the day. Bishop Gavilan, with his secretary, G. Ritz, is a visitor in the border cities for the week, come to officiate at the dedication exercises Thursday of the new Sacred Heart church in Juarez.

Playlets in Spanish.
Two playlets in Spanish amused the parents of the pupils. All other numbers were in English. A number of spectacular features in costume pleased. Ten half grown girls drilled in a Joan of Arc interpretation with pleasing effect and with perfect display of training. The hall was packed without standing room with friends of the two schools and applause was plentiful. The performance was notable for absolute absence of forgotten lines, so common in school affairs.

Interesting Program.
Following the program, medals of varying significance were awarded. The program appeared in Saturday's Herald. Those assisting in the ceremony, besides the visiting bishop, were Revs. C. M. Pinto, A. Schuler, M. Fernandez, F. Banks and Mother M. Victor.

Medals for the two schools were donated by Right Rev. E. J. Dunne, bishop of Dallas; Very Rev. J. M. Marra, S. J., Las Vegas, N. M.; Rev. E. Roy, S. J., El Paso; Gus Momen, El Paso; Union Catholic de San Jose; Ven. Mother M. Victor, Rev. S. Person, S. J., Trinidad, Colo.; Rev. Chas. M. Pinto, S. J.; Rev. Chas. Person, S. J.; Felix Martinez, El Paso; Rev. A. Schuler, S. J.; Ven. Mother Catherine.

TO TALK SOON TO LOS ANGELES BY PHONE.

Epes Randolph and His Company to Close the Gap Between the Tri-State and California Lines.

El Paso will soon be able to talk to Los Angeles by telephone. Conversation with Denver and Kansas City is already possible and the Los Angeles line is not far off.

The Consolidated Telephone, Telegraph and Electric Co., Col. Epes Randolph, president of the company, makes the statement that its line will soon be built. He said:

"We have arranged to build a line to Yuma to connect with a line to be built by the Bell Telephone company from Los Angeles, which will give Tucson people not only telephone connections with Los Angeles, but also with San Francisco and without relaying messages. All the important intermediate points will also be available, though they are not many."

"The Tri-State Telephone company, a subsidiary of the Bell interests, will build west to connect with us at Benson, thus affording conversation with El Paso and Denver."

"We are ready to commence construction on the new line to Yuma immediately, and the requisite material has been ordered. The Bell company, however, is a little afraid to attempt the desert construction east to Yuma until fall. Negotiations are now being conducted for the purpose of trying to induce them to commence work at once."

"As for the Tri-State company we have only the general assurance that they will begin working west to Benson as soon as practicable from El Paso."

"At the earliest, the through line should be ready for operation within 100 days. At the latest, it will take until the middle of December."

MAY MAIL STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS ON CARDS.

Postoffice Department Makes New Rule Regarding the Use of Postcard Statements.

In regard to the often propounded question concerning the mailability of postal cards bearing statements of account, it has been ruled that a postal card which contains an account not a due or overdue is mailable. The postoffice department has recently issued the following on this subject:

"The department does not regard as unmailable cards which bear respectful requests for settlement of recurrent accounts. This applies to notices when accounts, taxes, assessments, etc., will be due."

"Postmasters may therefore accept for mailing cards advising customers of the amounts of their bills when such cards do not bear a statement of a past due or an unpaid account other than the current account. The department regards as unmailable cards by which it appears that the addressee is being dunned for a past-due account."

NAT GOODWIN IS "WIDOWER" AGAIN

Is Said To Be Separated From Fourth Wife, Edna Goodrich.

Paris, France, June 6.—Nat Goodwin, the actor, and his wife, who was Edna Goodrich, the actress, have mutually agreed to separate, according to their friends here.

Mrs. Goodwin, who has just come to Paris from Carlsbad, where she has been "taking the springs," announced today that she was never going to return to the "constant worries" of married life.

Her friends say the separation is due to the incompatibility of the natures of the beautiful young woman and her much wedded husband. But, they declare, she added: "I have no intention of bringing any proceedings in divorce against Nat unless he shows some desire to try matrimony once again with someone else."

There is always the possibility, Mrs. Goodwin's friends point out, that Nat, hoping to find the soul mate his spirit craves (this will be soul mate No. 5) may wish for freedom to make another attempt.

New York Not Surprised.

New York, June 6.—No great surprise was manifested in New York theatrical circles tonight upon receipt of Goodwin news from Paris. Goodwin, according to his friends, has the "marrying habit," also the divorcing habit. They—the friends—say they have been hearing stories of a break-up in the latest Goodwin family for a month or so at least. And they suppose that after Nat's invariable custom he will soon be looking for wife No. 5.

Nat Goodwin Vanishes.

Nat Goodwin could not be found tonight, but friends say he is enroute to join his wife. His attorney, Herman L. Roth, declared that he had sailed for Europe aboard the liner Deutschland.

Edna Goodrich Protected.
Nat Goodwin has been married three times before he met Edna Goodrich—Edna Wetherby, Nellie Baker Pease and Maxine Elliott having been Miss Goodrich's predecessors to the title.

"Edna Goodrich, being a wise young woman, did not answer in the affirmative when Nat bade her become Mrs. Goodwin No. 4. She told him that she would first have to have some assurance that he would 'stick.'"

Nat's attorney says that he was worth two and a half millions and he put it all in escrow and agreed that half the income should be his and half his wife's for the rest of each of their natural lives, so that Mrs. Goodwin is provided for, whether they remain husband and wife or not.

EL PASO MASONS GIVEN A BANQUET AT HOUSTON.

The silver traveling trowel is now in the keeping of the Holland lodge of Houston. The special committee from the El Paso lodge, composed of E. C. Pew, F. A. Hewitt, L. E. Gillett and Clarence Longacker, delivered the Masonic emblem to the Houston lodge at a ceremonial session held in that city Thursday evening. The presentation was followed by a banquet at the Rice hotel, participated in by 400 members of the Holland lodge. E. C. Pew, past master of the El Paso lodge, responded to the toast "Our Visitors." The committee from the local lodge was also given a luncheon at the Houston Country club at which a number of the leading Masons of the state were invited guests.
